Again $x + x^2y + z^2 + t^3 = 0$

Lenny Makar-Limanov, Wayne State University

In the talk I am going to explain what is AK-invariant and give a complete computation of this invariant for the threefold $x + x^2y + z^2 + t^3 = 0$.